

Ethical guidelines

General behavior

Employees shall fulfill their obligations to BYGGmax in a manner that does not violate the company's trust.

Internal corporate information

Information acquired within the framework of employment at BYGGmax must never be used in an inappropriate manner.

Impartiality

Employees must not handle matters in which they or a close relative have personal interests, or, in their work at BYGGmax, act on behalf of an organization or other company in which they or a close relative have interests.

Gifts

As an employee of BYGGmax, staff may not offer, request or accept inappropriate gifts, payments or trips, on behalf of themselves or a close relative.

External commitment

Employees must not allow personal commitments to obstruct them from performing their duties and obligations as employees of BYGGmax, or undermine BYGGmax trust.

Free competition

Employees at BYGGmax must not, under any circumstances, participate in cooperations or transactions in a manner that will inappropriately impede free competition.
