Byggmax opens in Moss in spring 2012

Byggmax will open a new store on Varnaveien 30 in Moss in spring 2012. The store will employ five people, and two seasonal employees. Byggmax has opened 19 stores in Norway since its first store was established in the country in 2007.

- For a long time we have wanted to establish a store in Moss, and now we have found a good location for Byggmax. Our stores in Sarpsborg, Fredrikstad and Ski are doing well, so it feels great to be able to open in Moss, says Espen Nicolaisen, regional manager in Norway.

Varnaveien 30 is a good location, with an adequate space to establish Byggmax's concept.

Byggmax proud winner in price tests

Byggmax won several price tests in Norway during 2010 and 2011. In October 2011, "DinSide.no", noted that Byggmax had the lowest price for 40 liters of birchwood. During spring 2010 "TV2 hjelper dig" found that Byggmax was the cheapest alternative when purchasing materials for a 20 sqm patio. The morning paper "Fædrelandsvennen" published a price test in August 2010 which showed that Byggmax performed best when four construction-materials chains were compared.

- We are proud of the results in the tests. Our goal is to always be the cheapest alternative when purchasing construction materials, that is why we offer a lowest-price-guarantee for our whole product range. If you buy something from us and then find it at a lower price somewhere else in the local area, we will refund the difference plus 10% of it, says Magnus Agervald, CEO at Byggmax.
