Byggmax opened in Sisjön today

The low-price retailer Byggmax opened a store in Sisjön today. Byggmax continues their strong growth and today they have 63 stores throughout Sweden. The newly built store in Sisjön is situated at Hantverkarsvägen 16.

Byggmax sell construction materials such as lumber, flooring, dry-wall, cement, windows, doors and paint to both professionals and DIY-customers. The Byggmax concept is to offer good quality products at low prices.

Byggmax is the construction material retailer that Swedish house owners deem has the lowest prices, and according to the "Vi i Villa" house owners panel, conducted in May 2012, 50 % of men and 34 % of women believe that Byggmax has the lowest prices, the figures for the closest competitor are 7 % and 6 %. Byggmax also won consumer guide Testfakta's price comparison June 1th 2011 for a 20 sqm terrace.

The home improvement discount chain BYGGmax was launched in 1993 and currently has 63 stores in Sweden, from Ystad in the south to Luleå in the north. The company had net sales of approximately MSEK 3,000 in 2011 and is continuing to expand strongly. BYGGmax also has 22 stores in Norway and 8 in Finland, making the total number of stores 93. From the very beginning, BYGGmax's business concept has been to be the best and most inexpensive alternative for consumers in need of high-quality construction materials. BYGGmax has a drive-in system at all its stores, enabling customers to load their products into their vehicles directly. This makes life easy and efficient for customers, particularly when buying heavy construction materials. For further information, go to www.byggmax.com
