Byggmax opens in Kangasala in the summer of 2013

Byggmax opens its 10th store in Finland in the summer. The new store will open in Kangasala at the address Vällintie 4. The store will employ 4-5 people and additional seasonal employees. Last year Byggmax opened a store in Oulu. The goal is to build a nation-wide network including a total of 20-25 stores.

The Nordic low-price retailer Byggmax opens yet another new store in Finland. The store is to be opened in Kangasala at the address Vällintie 4.

The store will be located close to the highway between Tampere and Lahti, next to the Prisma hypermarket. The retail space where Byggmax's store is to be built is almost 10.000 sqm which makes it possible to establish a store of approximately 2.000 sqm as well as a yard with a drive in lane.

Byggmax current stores in Finland are located in Jyväskylä, Lahti, Pori, Porvoo, Raisio, Turku, Oulu, Vaasa and Vantaa
