Bygghem Group acquires Buildor

Bygghem acquires Buildor for a total of 130 million. The price is a combination of initial consideration and additional consideration based on future sales and profit. Buildor is a fast-growing e-commerce company with operations in Sweden. Over the last 12 months total turnover was almost 50 million and the growth was over 150%

– We are impressed by Buildors ability to grow sales and product range width, while keeping costs under control. We are convinced that Bygghem can help Buildor to grow even faster and become profitable sooner. We also see that Buildor can help us to become even better in e-commerce, says Magnus Agervald, CEO Bygghem Group.

– Together with Bygghem, we get a completely different purchasing muscle and the ability to sell a product range that we do not currently have access to. We can take advantage of Bygghem volumes and purchasing channels. This will be a considerable vitamin injection for Buildor, says Jonatan Schwamberg, CEO Buildor

Potential additional purchase price is based on sales and operating profit for Buildor in 2016 and 2017. The initial purchase price is 70 million for a debt free company. Bygghem completes the acquisition of Buildor in early November. The transaction will have a marginal impact Bygghem's earnings per share.

Bygghem publish the information in this interim report in accordance with the Act (2007: 528) regarding the securities market. The information was submitted for publication on 16 October 2015 at 15.00.
