Bygghem Group communicates locations for six new store openings

Bygghem Group plans to continue grow through both online sales and stores, and aims to open 8 to 12 new stores in 2017. Bygghem Group can now confirm locations for six of the new stores for 2017.

During the second and third quarter, Bygghem plans to open new stores in Skene, Östhammar and Söderhamn. Furthermore, Skånska Bygghem will open three new showroom stores this spring.

- We are very excited about 2017 and are looking forward to the Group's continued growth with both more physical stores and increasing e-commerce, says Mattias Ankarberg, CEO at Bygghem Group

Bygghem will open stores in Östhammar in June/July, Söderhamn in July and Skene in September. Skånska Bygghem will establish showrooms in existing Plantagen stores in Jönköping in March and in Bergen and Stavanger in Norway later on this spring.

In addition to these openings, Bygghem's store in Linköping, which opened in 2003, will move to brand new facilities at a new location during the second week of June.

The six new stores listed above are the first communicated store openings for 2017.
